

Anchor Hold [Lyrics, 68 bpm, 4/4]

[Default Arrangement] by Ryan Huggins, Aaron Swan, Kalyn Strobe

Intro : Vamp on

Verse 1:

When the fog has settled in
When the darkness seems to win
And I lose my sense of sight
When the brokenness and sin
Is the bed I'm laying in
And I lose the will to fight

Verse 2:

In the suffering and grief
When the chaos like a thief
Comes to blind me from the light
In my longing for relief
You're inviting my belief
You're sufficient through the night

Chorus:

O God my anchor hold I am not strong enough
O God my anchor hold These waves are far too rough
O God my anchor hold In you my rock I trust
O God please don't let go O God my anchor hold

Verse 3:

When I feel the enemy try to crush the hope in me with the weight of every lie
You renew my weary feet Lift me up on eagles' wings
I will run and not grow tired

Chorus 1

Instrumental (x2)

Bridge: (x1)

I will wait I will wait on you
Even when there's no shore in view
I will wait I will wait on you
Be my strength 'til the light breaks through

Bridge 2

I will wait I will wait on you
Even when there's no shore in view
I will wait I will wait on you
Be my strength 'til the light breaks through

Chorus 2

O God my anchor holds For He is strong enough
O God my anchor holds No storm or wave too rough
O God my anchor holds In Him my rock I trust
My God he won't let go----- (to bridge 2)

Bridge 3

Anchor Hold -

I will wait I will wait on you
Even when there's no shore in view
I will wait I will wait on you
Be my strength 'til the light breaks through

Instrumental Break Spontaneous (x3)

Last time:

Verse 1 Repeat:

When the fog has settled in
When the darkness seems to win
When I lose my sense of sight

Bridge 1 (softly) end on