

Savior of the World [Lyrics, 70 bpm, 4/4]

[The Well Church] by Ryan Huggins

Intro

Verse 1

What kind of King would leave his throne to lie in straw and hay
What uncreated God assumes an age
What unrivaled power would become a helpless babe
Only One. Only One.

Intro

Verse 2

What Son of Man could speak and still the ocean's violent waves
What Healer with a touch restores the lame
What might can muzzle demons taking back the ground they claim
Only One. Only One.

Chorus

Oh my soul rejoice
Come lift your tired voice
God in flesh, Hope refreshed
(1st time play intro, 2nd vamp then build)
The Savior of the World

Verse 3

What kind of shepherd seeks me out, a hopeless beggar fiend
What loving arms would pull me from my trash heap
What kind of servant taints himself to wash this leaper's feet
Only one. Only One.

Chorus

Verse 4

What kind of man would take upon the guilt and shame of all
Much more would die our death upon a cross
But then would rise his body breathe announcing death has lost
ONLY ONE! ONLY ONE!
ONLY ONE! ONLY ONE!

Chorus 2

Oh my soul rejoice
Come lift your ransomed voice
God in flesh, vanquished death
The Savior of the World

Oh my soul rejoice
Come lift your tired voice
God in flesh, Hope refreshed
The Savior of the World
